

FOOD SCRAPS

Part 1 – Read the Passage

In the kitchen, we cook food and eat it. After eating, we throw some things in the bin. We throw away the banana peel, egg shells, and onion skin. We also throw the bread crust, pea pod, and pizza crust. The corn husk and watermelon rind are parts we do not eat. Some people use lemon zest to cook. It smells nice!

2 – Comprehension Questions. Answer in short sentences or words.

1. Where do we throw food scraps? _____
2. Name two things we throw away after eating. _____
3. Do we eat the watermelon rind? _____
4. What smells nice and is used in cooking? _____
5. What part of the egg do we throw away? _____

3 – True or False

1. We eat the banana peel. _____
2. Onion skin goes in the bin. _____
3. Pizza crust is always eaten. _____
4. Some people use lemon zest for cooking. _____
5. Watermelon rind is sweet. _____

4 – Fill in the Blanks

WORD NBANK

banana peel	corn husk	egg shells	lemon zest	onion skin
-------------	-----------	------------	------------	------------

1. I throw the _____ in the bin.
2. We don't eat the _____.
3. I take off the _____ before cooking.
4. The _____ is yellow and smells good.
5. Chickens can eat _____.

5 – Match the Words to the Meanings

Words	Meanings
1. Banana peel	a. Hard cover of the corn
2. Corn husk	b. Yellow skin of lemon
3. Egg shells	c. Skin of the banana
4. Lemon zest	d. White or brown outside of egg

6 – Jumbled Sentences. Put the words in the correct order:

1. peel / banana / throw / I / the / away

→ _____

2. lemon / the / zest / use / I / cake / for

→ _____

3. in / shells / egg / the / bin / go

→ _____

4. do / we / watermelon / rind / eat / not

→ _____