

Safeguarding

Comprehension Passage

My name is Farah. I am 45 years old. I go to an English class twice a week. I like learning and meeting people. One day, I saw my friend Layla crying. She looked scared and did not want to talk. I asked if she was okay. She said, "No." I told the teacher. The teacher helped her speak to the safeguarding officer. Now, Layla is getting support.

Safeguarding means helping people feel safe. Some adults need help. You can speak to your teacher or someone you trust. If there is danger, call 999.
