

IDIOM OF THE DAY

In hot water

IDIOM OF THE DAY

Meaning:

To be in trouble or in a difficult situation (often because you did something wrong)

Sample sentences:

1. He is in hot water at work because he was late again.
2. I got in hot water for not finishing my homework.
3. She's in hot water with her boss after the mistake.
4. They are in hot water for breaking the rules.
5. He found himself in hot water after missing the meeting.
6. I'll be in hot water with my wife if I forget our anniversary again.
7. If you don't finish that report by the deadline, you'll be in hot water.

In hot water

